

Allies for Racial Equity

What you can do

1. Become a member of Allies for Racial Equity!
(Find membership forms at the DRUUMM booth and on our website.)
2. Make a heartfelt pledge to help us provide resources, offer training in effective ally behavior, and develop the organization into a self-sustaining entity.
3. Stop by the DRUUMM booth and better yet, sign-up to remain there for an hour!
4. Visit www.uuallies.org, offer feedback and connect others to the site.
5. Educate yourself by visiting the Resources page of the web site: (<http://uuallies.org/resources.htm>) and reading any or all of the articles listed. Share links with us to other resources.
6. Stay abreast of what's happening by joining allies-I, the [white-anti-racist] allies list serve: (http://druumm.org/mailman/listinfo/allies-I_druumm.org).
7. Mark November 10-12, 2006 on your calendar and plan to attend the 2006 UU Allies for Racial Equity conference to be held in conjunction with the DRUUMM annual conference. Details will be available soon.
8. Demonstrate ally behavior here at GA and call upon others to do the same.
9. Participate in our General Assembly communications network by calling the A.R.E. contact number (734-716-3445) anytime.
10. Organize within your own congregation. Offer discussion groups about books like:
Soul Work, Marjorie Bowens-Wheatley, Nancy Palmer Jones (Editors)
Sundown Towns, James W. Loewen
Uprooting Racism, How White People Can Work for Racial Justice
Paul Kivel
11. Join with neighboring congregations to offer ally training and develop other strategies to work toward racial equity.
