Immigrants: The New Civil Rights Movement

Evoking powerful strategies honed alongside Cesar Chavez in organizing the United Farmworkers Union, legendary labor and human rights activist Dolores Huerta is leading the nation's next exploding social justice issue: immigrant rights. Learn how the plight of 8 million undocumented workers could affect our nation's future - and yours.

Dolores Huerta

The Interdependent Web: Responsible Consumption and You
Seeds of Simplicity presents an upbeat, energizing look at voluntary simplicity movement and how it is advancing responsible, just consumption for the sake of your well-being and your planet; featuring actor Ed Begley, Jr. and Cecile Andrews, author of "The Circle of Simplicity," with host Carol Holst.

The Signature Project

The Signature Project is truly a one-of-a-kind experience. Patrick Dunning magically merges technology with music, visual art and story-telling to celebrate the interconnectedness of life. Selected audience members will join over 350,000 other artists who have signed their name as a part of Patrick's inspiring cosmic landscape.

William "Upski" Wimsatt: This Is What Democracy Looks Like

William "Upski" Wimsatt is an accomplished author, organizer, entrepreneur, and philanthropist all rolled into one. Currently, Mr. Wimsatt is working with the League of Independent Voters, an inspiring organization dedicated to mobilizing new young voters to elect progressive politicians that will be accountable to their constituencies.

Creating a Progressive Pro-Family Agenda

How can we reclaim the powerful rhetoric of Family from the religious and political right? "Family matters" affect everyone, regardless of their gender, age, income, marital status, living situation, or sexual orientation. Panelists will offer strategies for making the conversation wide enough to include and nurture us all.

Judy Shephard

Bill Doherty

Rev. William Sinkford

This year the Service of the Living Tradition will return to its original Friday evening time slot. Celebrate with fellow UUs as traditional UU hymns are sung and the fellowship of ministry is commemorated. We will be inviting residents of the Long Beach community to join us for a Sunday Morning Worship. The service will convey the Good News of Unitarian Universalism, a faith of open minds, loving hearts and helping hands. Worship will be open to all, both UUs and those who may be seeking our faith.
