Dear Friends

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to have this occasion to send you my gratitude. I have the best job in the world because I get to thank so many Unitarian Universalists for their gifts of time, energy, and money to this faith. Especially in troubled times like these, when all of us feel financial constraints it is important to give thanks to the many, so many, Unitarian Universalists who have expressed their commitment in generous gifts to the Association.

I am inspired, and humbled, to see how eagerly Unitarian Universalists are answering the call to stewardship. These pages are a record of generosity enacted on every day of the year, from UUs living in Alaska and Arkansas, New York and Nebraska, and all points in between. We have much to celebrate.

I'm especially proud to recognize the 18,428 gifts made to the Association through Friends of the UUA this year. Gifts to Friends make it possible for the Association to deliver the very best services to all of our congregations.

If you made a gift to Friends of the UUA this year—thank you.

It's also an honor to recognize the 320 congregations that have held a "Mind the Gap" Youth and Young Adult Ministry Sunday to invigorate and expand our Youth and Young Adult Programming, through the Campaign for Unitarian Universalism. The Campaign as a whole is going strong, building resources for ministry, new curricula, new congregations, and much more.

If you are a member of a "Mind the Gap," Youth and Young Adult Ministry Sunday congregation, or have supported the Campaign for Unitarian Universalism in other ways—thank you.

The UUA Legacy Society, honoring those who have included the Association in their life estates, continues to swell in membership. Take a moment to read their names; these individuals and families will see our liberal religion into the future and nourish it, long after they are gone.

If you are among the visionary members of the UUA Legacy Society—thank you.

And please visit the Annual Program Fund 2002-2003 report, also on the UUA website. Our churches are contributing generously, across the country.

If you belong to an Honor, a Merit or a Leadership Congregation—thank you.

The generosity I see in Unitarian Universalists everywhere gives me great hope as we move forward toward common dreams. It is good to take time to celebrate those who have brought us this far and give us reason to believe that our dreams are possible.

Yours in faith,

Bill Sinkford

The UUA Legacy Society

Charitable Gifts held in Trust, Bequest Plans, and Estate Gifts

The 759 members of the UUA Legacy Society have each made a gift through their life estate to benefit the Association. We are grateful to all of these Unitarian Universalists for their forward-looking gifts. Each one is a legacy of hope.

The Charitable Gift and Estate Planning team assisted many UUs with planned gifts for our movement this year. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003, 130 individual gifts totaled $3,725,985. Each of these gifts will provide important resources to the UUA and its member congregations. The Association received $1,357,278 from the estates of 30 deceased Unitarian Universalists, including $130,024 distributed to UU congregations from gifts held in trust by the UUA. New gifts held in trust numbered 47, totaling $1,198,170, of which $747,540 is designated for the future benefit of member congregations. Forty-four new bequest plans were completed, totaling $1,170,538. The Association's Campaign for Unitarian Universalism was named to benefit from eleven new planned gifts, adding $1,266,120 toward the $32 million goal.

The Campaign for Unitarian Universalism

By July 1, 2003, the Campaign had received over $26.3 million in gifts and bequests. In all, the Campaign will raise $32 million dollars for congregations and districts to share our UU vision, nurture our young people and young adults, support the growth of our congregations, and train our theological students and lay leaders.

The following individuals and organizations have contributed generously to the Campaign with gifts ranging from $250 to over a million dollars. We recognize these donors for their visionary generosity.

A separate list of all congregations that have held a "Mind the Gap," Youth and Young Adult Ministry Sunday appears at the end of this report.

Special Gifts

The following gifts deserve special mention, and do not fit easily into another category of giving. Some are significant gifts from the estates of deceased Unitarian Universalists, and others are for the establishment of new scholarship funds. The Association is pleased to thank the following individuals and organizations for their outstanding contributions in the past year.

The Unitarian Universalist Women's Federation, for a gift of $200,000 establishing the Clara Barton Internship for Women's Issues at the UUA Washington Office for Advocacy. The UUA also extends gratitude to the many generous individual contributors to this fund.

Robert C. and Martha A. Atherton for continued support of the Atherton Ministerial Scholarship.

Todd and Lorella Hess for continued support of the Chuck Thomas Ministerial Scholarship.

Paul E. Holton for continued support of the Professor Richard C. Borden Preaching Award.

Dr. Esther A. H. Hopkins for a gift establishing the Hopkins Ministerial Scholarship, in memory of her husband, The Rev. T. Ewell Hopkins.

The Estate of William Campbell for general support of the Association.

The Estate of Lucille K. Gallon for the establishment of the Lucille and Jerome Gallon Scholarship, in support of the Association's HANDING ON THE FUTURE capital campaign.

The Estate of Ingeborg Cherbury Haseltine, for the establishment of the Haseltine Ministerial Scholarship for women students of the UU ministry.

The Estate of Hardy Sanders, for support of the Association's HANDING ON THE FUTURE capital campaign.

Mind the Gap

Youth and Young Adult Ministry Sunday

The following 320 congregations have held a “Mind the Gap” Sunday to raise funds for youth and young adult programming. “Mind the Gap” is a part of the Campaign for Unitarian Universalism, which seeks to raise $2 million for programs, services, and resources to help congregations better serve youth and young adults, and to help UU campus programs take root and grow.

Commitments to “Mind the Gap” total $722,224. The Association extends thanks to everyone who contributed to a “Mind the Gap,” Youth and Young Adult Ministry Sunday, and to the many ministers and lay leaders around the country who have made these events possible.
