

THE STEWARDSHIP SERMON AWARD

Why is it important for us to financially support our Unitarian Universalist Faith?

The Stewardship Sermon Award was established in 1984 and is given annually for the sermon judged most effective in exploring and promoting financial support of our Unitarian Universalist Faith. This $1,000 award is co-sponsored by the Annual Program Fund (APF), the Unitarian Universalist Ministers Association (UUMA) and the Liberal Religious Educators Association (LREDA).

The deadline for submissions, for the “2007 Stewardship Sermon Award” is February 14, 2007. Religious professional leaders are invited to submit sermons delivered between January 1, 2006 and February 11, 2007 to the Annual Program Fund Assistant, Melissa Ferris, apf@uua.org.

For more details go to:

<http://www.uua.org/giving/apf/sermon.html>

Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations
25 Beacon St. | Boston, MA 02108 | 617-742-2100