

ACTION ALERT FROM THE UU WASHINGTON OFFICE

Judge Sam Alito is a threat to Civil Liberties!
He Should NOT Sit on the U.S. Supreme Court.
Tell Your Senators THIS WEEK!

The Unitarian Universalist Association joins other religious and civil rights groups in opposing the confirmation of Judge Alito to a lifetime appointment on the US Supreme Court. Alito's 15 year judicial record shows his lack of commitment to protecting the rights and freedoms of every American. Senate hearings on the Alito nomination are expected January 9, 2006.

Senators are currently home for the holidays and need to hear from you NOW.

*"Unitarian Universalists have always honored our commitment to uphold civil liberties. Protecting the freedoms that are at the heart of our democracy is for us a religious, as well as a civic, duty."
—Rev. William Sinkford, December 2005*

ACTION:
Tell Your Senators to OPPOSE
Supreme Court Nominee Sam Alito.

Unitarian Universalists are encouraged to call (or VISIT) senators in their state offices over the December congressional recess and let them know why you oppose Judge Alito and why THEY should oppose his confirmation.

Visit www.senate.gov to look up your Senators' home office numbers or simply call the Capitol Switchboard at (202) 224-3121 and ask for your Senators by name.

For more information on the Alito nomination—including UUA criteria for opposition, see www.uua.org/alito.
For info on taking grassroots action, call 202-296-4672.

Sign-up for the Washington Office's weekly "Advocacy News" email alert for legislative updates on important issues at www.uua.org/uuawo.

ACTION ALERT FROM THE UU WASHINGTON OFFICE

Judge Sam Alito is a threat to Civil Liberties!
He Should NOT Sit on the U.S. Supreme Court.
Tell Your Senators THIS WEEK!

The Unitarian Universalist Association joins other religious and civil rights groups in opposing the confirmation of Judge Alito to a lifetime appointment on the US Supreme Court. Alito's 15 year judicial record shows his lack of commitment to protecting the rights and freedoms of every American. Senate hearings on the Alito nomination are expected January 9, 2006.

Senators are currently home for the holidays and need to hear from you NOW.

*"Unitarian Universalists have always honored our commitment to uphold civil liberties. Protecting the freedoms that are at the heart of our democracy is for us a religious, as well as a civic, duty."
—Rev. William Sinkford, December 2005*

ACTION:
Tell Your Senators to OPPOSE
Supreme Court Nominee Sam Alito.

Unitarian Universalists are encouraged to call (or VISIT) senators in their state offices over the December congressional recess and let them know why you oppose Judge Alito and why THEY should oppose his confirmation.

Visit www.senate.gov to look up your Senators' home office numbers or simply call the Capitol Switchboard at (202) 224-3121 and ask for your Senators by name.

For more information on the Alito nomination—including UUA criteria for opposition, see www.uua.org/alito.
For info on taking grassroots action, call 202-296-4672.

Sign-up for the Washington Office's weekly "Advocacy News" email alert for legislative updates on important issues at www.uua.org/uuawo.