

NEW FROM LIFESPAN FAITH DEVELOPMENT

“Imagine if virtually everyone who had been raised Unitarian Universalist was still affiliated with our faith. Imagine how even more powerful a religious movement ours would be. In this remarkable book, Kate Tweedie Erslev (and the 82 ‘lifelong UUs’ she interviewed) tells us how to make that dream a reality for the next generation. If we take all this good advice, Unitarian Universalism will never be the same!”

William F. Schulz, UUA President,
1985-93; Executive Director, Amnesty
International USA, 1994

Readers of Full Circle will be inspired and well-equipped to help ensure that those being raised in our movement today will continue as active UUs. This book is an empowering collage of what makes UUs tick as well as what sticks to our young religious ribs. Jaco B. ten Hove and Barbara Wells, parish co-ministers and authors of Articulating Your UU Faith

A third generation UU, Kate Tweedie Erslev is director of religious education at the UU Fellowship of Boulder, CO. She has an M.Ed. in human development from the Eliot-Pearson Department of Child Study at Tufts University. She is the author of Chalice Children: A Unitarian Universalist Preschool Curriculum.
