

NEW FROM LIFESPAN FAITH DEVELOPMENT ...

A Lamp in Every Corner features twenty-one original stories that bring UU history to life for young listeners. This unique collection offers educators, parents and ministers a wonderful way to share our faith story with our children. A Lamp in Every Corner is arranged in three chapters of seven stories each. The stories in "How We Came To Be" tell about the great milestones in our faith history. The stories in "Who We Are" bring our faith heroes to life. "What We Believe" features stories about each of our seven Principles. In addition to the stories, A Lamp in Every Corner Provides suggestions for the novice storyteller and ample Storytelling resources, plus historical information and Discussion starters.

“Rigorous attention to historical detail, combined with the whimsy of storytelling, makes this book invaluable. An excellent resource for the planners of children's time in the church worship service and for parents who wish to discuss UU history and values with their children at home.”

Katharine W. Inglee, author of Farmer's Daughter,
Miller's Son: A Novel of Farm and Mill Life in 1816
