

Thinking of visiting Boston?

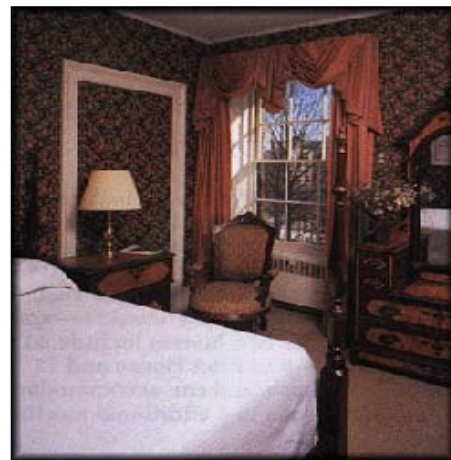

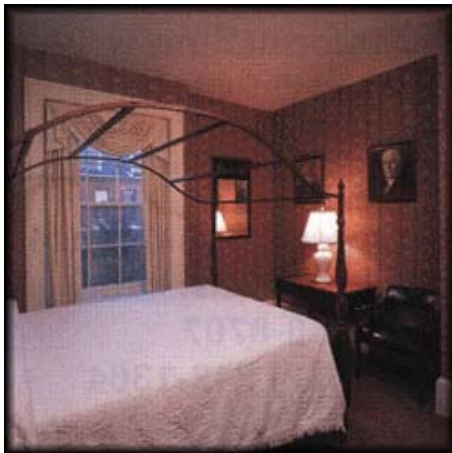

The Eliot & Pickett Lodging House has space available for your committee meetings and lodging during your tour of historic New England and our Unitarian Universalist roots.

Located on the top of the prestigious and historical Beacon Hill area, we offer a fantastic location in the heart of downtown Boston. We are within walking distance from all the main attractions of the city and historical UUism.

Our location has 20 guest rooms, two meeting rooms and a fantastic deck overlooking the Boston Common

Meeting rooms and lodging are available especially during the summer months and also throughout the year at reasonable prices.

Daily room rate for a single is $70 and for a double is $100.
