

Our Whole Lives Junior & Senior High O.W.L. Training

For facilitators of the sexuality education program

April 27-29, 2007

Sponsored by the Pacific Northwest District

When? Begins at 5:00 pm on Friday (with dinner) and ends at 4:30 pm on Sunday. To be certified you must attend the full weekend.

Where? Tahoma Unitarian Universalist Congregation
1115 South 56th Street, Tacoma, WA 98408

Bring the OWL materials with you! This includes the OWL curriculums (both Junior & Senior High levels), and Sexuality and Our Faith. These are available through the UUA Bookstore (1-800-215-9076 or uua.org/bookstore.) You may also order them through this registration.

Registration Information: Pairs are required to lead OWL, preferably of different genders. Registration includes home hospitality, meals, snacks, and materials for participants only. Home hospitality is guaranteed for those registering by the deadline. Home hospitality for late registrants may be available up to one week before the training. A 50% deposit is required to hold your place. No phone registrations will be accepted. You will receive registration confirmation following the deadline. Childcare is not available; occasional visits by a nursing baby may be acceptable. Maximum number of participants is 20. If there are less than 12 registrants by the deadline, the training may be canceled. After the deadline registration is accepted as space permits. If the registration is full, preference is given to teams from the Pacific Northwest District. Contact the registrar with questions.

Fee per person is $180

Registration deadline is March 30, 2007

After the deadline the fee is $210.

U.S. funds only. Canadian checks not accepted.

Make checks payable to "PNWD-UUA" with "Tacoma OWL" in the memo.

Refund Policy: All cancellations prior to the registration deadline will be subject to a $15.00 handling charge. Cancellations within one day or no-show may forfeit entire fee dependent on funds available at the end of the training.
