

Stewardship: The Joy of Giving

Stewardship: The Joy of Giving

“Living is giving. We live life best as we give our strengths, gifts, and competencies . . . We are called to serve, not survive. Our giving makes a difference in our families, our congregation, our community, and our faith.” —adapted from Kennon L. Callahan

Acknowledgements

We gratefully acknowledge the Unitarian Universalist Association's Departments of Development and Religious Education for paving the way for this program: identifying the need for stewardship education, developing a vision for such education across the lifespan, and articulating a philosophy of spiritual activism. Members who participated in this groundwork included:

Linda Lee Berg

Pat Hoertdoerfer

Makanah Morriss

Fia Scheyer

Bob Snow

We are grateful to the children, youth, and adults from the following congregations who field-tested this program and provided valuable feedback:

Unitarian Universalist Church, Portsmouth, New Hampshire

First Parish, Norwell, Massachusetts

First Religious Society, Carlisle, Massachusetts

Unitarian Universalist Church, Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Unitarian Universalist Congregation, Fort Wayne, Indiana

Unitarian Universalist Church, Nashua, New Hampshire

First Unitarian Universalist Church, San Diego, California

First Universalist Church, Louisville, Kentucky

Special thanks to members of the Unitarian Universalist Association's cross-departmental Spirituality-Driven Generosity Squad—Wayne Clark, Lynn Kerr, Carla Kindt, Ralph Mero, and Mary Miles—for their critical review of and valuable suggestions for this program.

We gratefully acknowledge use of the following material:
